

DRAFT

The Honorable Edward P. Boland, Chairman
Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence
U.S. House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515

Dear Mr. Chairman:

In my letter of September 28, 1978, responding to your request that I cover six special subjects in this year's annual report, I said that I would be able to accommodate all of those subjects with one exception. It has now been brought to my attention that another of those subjects is not within my competence or jurisdiction. That is the fifth special subject:

All reports from the Attorney General to the President regarding any intelligence activities which raise questions of legality and decisions made or actions taken in response to reports from agencies within the intelligence community forwarded to the Attorney General by the Intelligence Oversight Board.

In fact, of course, I do not have the information which is asked for, and it would be appropriate and possible only for the President and the Attorney General, respectively, to provide the information you seek.

With very best wishes.

Yours sincerely,

STANSFIELD TURNER

I do not feel that I can respond to the committee's request for two reasons. First, there is no assurance that I will receive all such correspondence between the Attorney General and the President. Secondly, even if I were provided copies of such documents, it is ^{not} more appropriate to request ~~for someone~~ ^{other than} the original.

(over)

on your behalf and request Should you wish, I can and will be most happy to ~~request~~ the Attorney General to provide such information to the Congress either on a case by case or continuing basis. I do request, however, that you release me from the obligation of providing such information unilaterally and directly.

STAT

[redacted], Deputy General Counsel, just called about annual report tasking to the General Counsel Office. Problem is that they say the DCI cannot answer Task #5 of the Boland letter (Att. General to President Oversight reports and IOB to Att. General reports.) Unfortunately, OLC did not originally so advise us; they simply indicated GC should more properly organize the work. Meanwhile, DCI has written Boland that he could accommodate all the special tasks except #4 (Foreign Agreements). We talked about various ways to retrieve this situation and decided that a new DCI to Boland letter now is awkward but best under circumstances. GC will draft. When it goes, GC or we should follow up with a call to Lattimer. Any better ideas??

Please see my comments on draft. Could you deal with [redacted] directly & let me know how it comes out?
O'Hanrahan Jim.

2nd sentence deleted because
① would put DCI in middle for response over which he has no control, &
② AG can't necessarily release his reports to Pres, only Pres. can.
③ used your 1st & 3rd sentences (more graceful) & then asked Congress to ask [redacted] but felt we should cut our losses and the word.
